With out asking the site designer, describe your impression of the purpose of this site:

With out asking the site designer: Who is the target audience for this site? Who might visit this site? Give 3 possibilities.

Describe the effects the color choices have on your experience of the site:

Describe the effects the typography choices have on your experience of the site:

Describe the effects the individual page structure and the over all organization of the site has on your experience of the site:

Describe the level of development of this site: Is it adequate for the topic? What further information would you like to see?

Offer at least 1 strength of the site, 1 weakness of the site: